SEA CAPTAIN CURED

OF RHEUMATISM.

HE GRINS WITH JOY.

LEXINGTON, Mass., June 25, 1875.

PROF. ALPHONSE HILLER:

DEAR SIR,—For the alleviation of human suffering I feel more than duty as well as pleasure to certify to the following facts in my own case.

The past spring I was sore afflicted with Sciatic Rheumatism, suffering night and day with pain and at times the least exertion, the least exercise, caused me to cry out with pain I ever knew. My doctor who practices in my family for over thirty years, to my infinite satisfaction and in whom I still have the utmost confidence, said that "medicine would do me no good—the case was too far gone, nothing probably would; and in six or eight weeks it might leave me; in the meantime I must grin and bear it." But I was not disposed to do so, and in my desperation caught at the first thing which came under the name of Quack or Patent Medicine, or anyone, or anybody, promised relief. It happened that this was the obtained at No. 36 Hanover st., Boston, the statements accompanying directions seemed reasonable, and I determined to give it a fair trial. I did so, at the same time being very much in doubt. I followed the directions, and the results were that on using the third bottle I was sensible that it was acting, pour out the contents of the second bottle, my pain had gone, and passed away, and I now have occasion to grin (with joy) that I no longer have to bear them.

Yours respectfully,

WM. D. PHELPS.

We endorse the above testimony as genuine.

G. C. GOODWIN & CO.,

33 Hanover Street.

Mr. Phelps is a gentleman well and favorably known in this community, and his word for truth and veracity has been recognized by our shipping merchants as one of the most successful captains sailing from this port of Boston. This testimony is genuine and speaks more than volumes could express, in favor of the great merits of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure.

This medicine is prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the profession, in his trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in its highest state of purity and efficacy, and in support so say its friends, very compounded for this terrible complaint.

In simple cases sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic cases it is quite within the way by the use of four or five bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who are afflicted, and pain is driven away, as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all druggists' throughout the United States and Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to any of the wholesale druggists in Boston, Concord, N. H., Worcester, Providence, Portland, Hangor and other places.

GETTYSBURG.

A friend who is a sagacious observer of political events, aptly characterizes the recent struggle in this State as the Gettysburg of the National contest between the Republican and Democratic parties. In our political field as on that historical battle-field of Pennsylvania, the enemy massed all their forces in their attacking column and when they were repulsed the rebellion received a decisive check when its hopes had reached their highest point. As in those other days the enemy flushed with success and encouraged by the inactivity of our forces have boldly pushed the assault into the heart of Republican territory and made it a desperate effort to bring about a Republican victory by carrying the Republican strongholds of Maine. We have met the assault and while less fully prepared than we should have been, the attacking column have been repulsed with defeat and the Republican standard still floats over the field.

We may carry the analogy still further and think that as the invasion of Pennsylvania was required to arouse the Northern people to a full sense of their danger so the powerful struggle of the Democracy to win a foothold on our hills in the heart of Maine seems to have been needed to impress the Republicans of this State with the dangers which menace them and which demand a new will of the patriotic and vigor that have given us the glorious triumphs of the past.

If our friends have failed to heed up the recent events in this and other States should certainly awaken them to a full recognition of the determinate efforts of the Democracy to gain control of the National Government next year. In carrying out that design protestations of good faith and party platforms will be kicked aside as rubbish and the Democratic party will declare for anything which will most surely and speedily enable it to support the greatest number of the ignorant vicious and self seeking. The object of next year leaders will be full of grave peril to the interests of the country and no time should be lost by thinking men in arising and uniting themselves to withstand the assaults of the rebel rebels by unscrupulous and reckless demagogues.

If an example of the utter incapacity of the disorganized character of the Democratic party is needed we find it in the fact that while the Democrats of Maine declare for greenbacks for hard money at their state convention, the organs in this State are already preparing for a full indorsement of the repudiation doctrines of Ohio. The chance of joint-to the unanimous expression of the Ohio platform by the entire Democracy of Pennsylvania as signifies that that the issue is to be paramount in the next Presidential contest. The Democrats are holding up in the same way by claiming that to "precipitate specie payments would be immediately disastrous to the laboring classes" rather than to resort to inflation. They do not stop to fully cover the law as set and both papers are nervously waiting for the course of the New York Democracy but it is evident that they would do like to-morrow for any inflation platform that may put forth by the National convention of their party.

The danger to the country is more imminent than our people have believed and they should begin at once to organize for a contest which will prevent the Democratic party from a conflicting by politicians this time being non of the country which has the accomplish the redemption.

[From the New York Times.]

THE PERILOUS POLITICAL FUTURE.

The times before us are such as to call forth all the prudence and patriotism, all the firmness and wisdom which may exist among our public men. In the face of what we are rapidly approaching, we have little disposition to go into mere party warfare. We should be too glad to see both parties united in the determination to maintain the national credit and honor, and to set their faces resolutely against the communism which, in one shape or other, has caused so many disasters in old countries. But what we find at this moment is that one of the great parties of the United States is systematically pandering to this very sentiment. The proposed Lieutenant Governor of Ohio tells the court that the only way to make the poor better off is to despoil the rich, "and to wipe out the national debt with the sponge of repudiation." In Indiana the same party has proposed the same course. In Pennsylvania it has recommended a policy which is sure to lead to these results. If any man is disposed to treat these signs of the times as trivial matters he has studied the history of governments and antiquity to little purpose. We do not say that the entire Democratic party has given itself over to this ruinous infatuation. Thus far our own State has gallantly contended against it. The World is as much opposed to inflation or repudiation as the Times. That journal has had for several years to "educate its party," to borrow a saying of Mr. Disraeli's, and it has found very stubborn pupils. It has had to deal with elements which were enough to discourage the strongest heart. However much we may have differed with it on many occasions we have admired its struggles with the demagogues and incendiaries of its own party with strong sympathy and cordial wishes for its success. But the crisis now before the country is more serious than any it has had to encounter, except that alone which ended in a horrible war. How far will the counsels of the wiser Democrats guide their party in dealing with it? Not, more—is a sufficiently large majority of the people prepared to support any men or party in the effort to manage it in such a way as that it may not become a constantly increasing danger? What the answer to these questions may be we cannot tell, yet upon the answer depends in no slight degree the future happiness and prosperity of this country.

IMPUDENCE.

[From the Bangor Age.]

For brazen effrontery, the despatch sent to the President by the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Mississippi in regard to the massacre at Clinton is unique. He declares that "there is no disturbances in the State and no obstructions to the execution of the laws; that there was some disturbance at a political meeting but that everything is quiet now," and that "peace prevails throughout the State." Undoubtedly peace prevails on the part of those Ku Klux companies who marched upon that town, and after stationing guards outside to prevent the colored people from escaping, commenced the next morning after the affray, to shoot down every negro they could find. Having accomplished their fiendish purpose, they are doubtless peaceable now and all they want is to be let alone. Last year, when the New Orleans rebels had overturned the Louisiana state government, they protested to the President that peace reigned and there was no occasion for his interference."

GOOD FOR GUILFORD

In Republicans have a little consolation which comes from the Democratic stronghold, Guilford the home of the most influential Democrats of Piscataquis county. It shows this year a gain over last of 60 Republican votes, while the Democrats have increased their vote but 9. This may be put down as the "banner town of Piscataquis."—Observer.

How Bangor Voted

The following table compiled by O. K. Ingalls, Esq., shows the total number of votes entered on the check-lists in this city to be 4,824, of whom 3,083 voted on Monday, while there were 942 dissentees, mostly Republicans.

Ward
Ward 1—	430	501	108
" 2—	303	531	172
" 3—	308	581	157
" 4—	304	458	154
" 5—	324	504	123
" 6—	414	407	101
" 7—	423	501	122
Total	2324	3083	942

Ellsworth says that with the exception of Ellsworth, Bucksport, Orland, Sullivan and Brooksville, about every town in Hancock county has increased its Republican vote.

With characteristic truthfulness the Camden correspondent omits any recapitulation of the official returns, but furnishes up a table of an imaginary majority in some of the counties, in which it gives Gen Connor's majority in the State as 2,880. It might just as honestly have put it at 300. But many of its readers will never know the difference.

We publish this morning detailed returns from 373 cities, towns, etc giving 3,110 for Connor and 15,821 for Roberts, with a majority for Connor of 4,430. As the towns to be heard from gave an aggregate Republican majority of 863 last year a liberal allowance for decrease will leave sufficient to bring the total majority up to or beyond 5,000.

A despatch from New Orleans says that in the town of Milton Fla., nine miles above Pensacola the entire population of which consists of fifty-four persons, there are thirty three cases of yellow fever, eleven of which have been fatal. At West Pascagoula, one hundred miles from New Orleans, there have been seventy cases and fifteen deaths during the past week.

Most of the visitors to Bar Harbor have taken their departure. Their number, has been larger than at any preceding season, probably exceeding 2,500. Among them all it is said that there has not been a single case of serious illness.

Among the leading Republicans elected to the House are Hon Frederick Robie of Gorham, E. B. Nealley, of Bangor, and Ambrose White, of Bucksport. Among the prominent Democrats are Hons J. C. Talbot, of E. Machias, F. A. Pike, of Calais, and S. J. Anderson, of Portland.—Lewiston Journal.

The account of Captain Webb's feat of swimming across the British Channel was thickly sprinkled with a catalogue of drinks which he took at regular intervals. Brandy and port wine were provided also for Miss Beckwith during her swim of five miles in the Thames, but she declined to take either and performed her task without stimulants.

Gen. Sherman's view of Jeff Davis will be regarded as eminently sound by a large majority of the men who were loyal to the Union during the war. He speaks of Davis as one of the men whose names should be execrated, as he was a cool, educated secessionist. He knew better, and to him and a few others like him is due the Rebellion. They ought to be ignored. He had no patience with those who were inviting Davis to speak at fairs especially in the North.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

The Oxford Democrat says that Connor's majority will be nearly if not quite as large in that county, as it was last year, when it was 454.

The Cincinnati Commercial thinks that "the people of this country might as well wake up to the fact that this Ohio inflation movement is the most important event since the close of the rebellion."

The New York Tribune (Liberal Republican) says that "every day strengthens and unites the Republican party as the defender of an honest currency, and forces the Democratic party further toward the other side of the question."

Since the Pennsylvania Democratic convention the Nashville American (inflation Dem.) announces that "all doubt that the currency is to be the all-absorbing issue of the Presidential campaign will now be dissipated. 'Rag-money' must win the day, and the fate of the national bank monopoly is already sealed."

It must be clear now to everybody, as heretofore to the more competent observers, that if the Democracy win in this State, the Democratic party will be carried headlong and by wholesale for the inflation scheme the hard-money Democrats of the Eastern States holding out at most for a feeble phrase in the platform over which they may equivocate.—Cincinnati Commercial (lib.)

NEW MAGAZINES.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE, for October, is an unusually attractive number. It opens with a beautiful idyll of country life, contributed by Jean Ingelow, and gracefully illustrated with six pictures by Sol Eytinge. A richly illustrated article entitled, The Land of Lakes, describes Minnesota—its resources, natural scenery, and its principle cities, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Junius Henri Browne gives some graphic pictures of prominent Parisian journalists—including De Girardin, De Cassagnac, About, and Veuillot, whose portraits illustrate the article. Mr. Conway contributes a second paper on the art treasures of the South Kensington Museum profusely illustrated, and giving especial attention to the influence of the Museum in the progress of Art Education. The most important paper in the number is President Woolsey's contribution to the First Century series, entitled, The Exper ment of the Union with its Preparations. Of a lighter character, though by no means trivial, is the Hon S. S. Cox's paper on Legislative Humors, full of racy sketches and anecdotes. Another of Castelar's philosophic papers is given in this number. The field is already ripe in this country for the suggestions and eloquent appeal, for Ellis Gray's paper on The Mission of Music. It is an intensely practical discussion of the prospects of popular musical education in America. Full in Hawthorne's lightly beautiful and yet almost ideal romantic novel, Garth, is continued, its hero being now ready to be launched into the wonderful experiences of college life. Of short stories this number has an unusual variety. Besides Jean Ingelow's poem, there are also poetical contributions by J. W. De Forest, A. M. Lowe, F. W. Bourdillon, Nelly M. Hutchinson, L. W. Backus, and A. F. The Editorial Departments admirably cover their respective fields. Harper & Brothers, N. Y., publishers. For sale at Burgess'.

THE OVERLAND MONTHLY. The September number of this sterling magazine is from full of good sound reading matter as it always is and readers can but be delighted with it. The Navagator Islands, by Litton Forbes is the initial article and will be read with interest by people on this side of the country. Crossing the Mexican Desert, chapters VI and VII of Joaquin Miller's in a California Eden, Part I of J. O. Irwin's Shakespeare's Religious Belief, What I Double See Has Made and Cruise of the San Blasena, are parts which possess more than ordinary attractions for the magazine reader. The other portions of the number are worthy a careful perusal and anyone who takes up the September number will find that it has no dull pages. John H. Carmany & Co., San Francisco, Cal. Publishers.

Medway Matters.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

H. Poor & Son's sawmill is now running on full time. They are going to make more improvements in the way of building, and contemplate putting in some fifty more vats. Under the direction of their gentlemanly agent F. Gilman, they are doing a thriving business.

The travel from Moosehead to Medway, by the way of Katahdin, is on the increase. A party of sixteen, five ladies among the number, passed this place last Sunday, and gave Gen Connor's majority in the State, on all report having a very pleasant time. Up to this date seventy-three persons have visited Katahdin and drank of the cooling waters of Abullpackenetenus.

J. Washington Wason, a student from the Bangor Theological Seminary, who has been preaching at this place the past summer, died last Thursday. He was a good scholar and an esteemed gentleman. His remains will be taken to his native place in Canada.

Bears are very thick in this section. Last Saturday one paid his respects to Mr. Powers, who in return gave him the contents of a well loaded gun. Bruin did not leave the premises.

A party of 40 men will have a shooting match in this place the 1st day of October. The side that gets the most game will have the pleasure of sitting down to a forty dollar supper, free gratis, at the Boarding House of Hon. Geo. Cutler.

LOOKER-ON

Up-River News

Our correspondent Nopen writes from Winn September 15. Last evening the 14th, the 7 50 P. M. freight train was late, and about 8.15 they attempted to make a running switch at Winn, and the whole train except the engine and one flat car went on to the switch side-track, and an empty car on the side track was tipped over by the force of the concussion. The ends of the cars were smashed in and the iron-work was badly twisted and a lot of furniture in a car to be left on the side track, was badly broken up. The car which was to have been left on the side track was thrown across both tracks and detained the 10.25 train for over an hour. They will be removed to-morrow morning and will be carried to Mattawamkeag for repairs.

In Caleb Estes' shingle-mill the drum got out of order and sent its adjacent machinery flying into the next section, knocking off boards and doing considerable damage.

James Wilsse, Jr., of Houlton, commenced the fall term of the Free High School at Mattawamkeag this week.

A large number of houses are now being shingled in Winn. Several of the residences of Mattawamkeag are being improved by the building of new fences around them.

Meeting of Reform Club Delegates.

LEWISTON, Sept. 16. By invitation of the Lewiston Reform Club, delegates from several Reform Clubs in Maine have held a conference meeting here to-day for association and consultation. At the meeting in the forenoon F. A. Eastman was made temporary President and P. H. Whig Secretary. Addresses were made by President Eastman, Knapp, Stanford, Tibbetts of Bath, Putnam and Day of Monmouth, and Wakeff of Portland. In the afternoon Elliot Ring of Mechanic Falls, was chosen President and P. H. Wing Secretary, with Vice Presidents all the counties being represented. The best method of carrying on reform work was discussed; also whether it is in keeping for Reform Clubs to prosecute rum sellers. In the evening there was a very large rally in City Hall, in spite of the rain. Speeches were made by Knapp of Norway, Judge Tallman of Bath, Bryant of Gardiner and others.

Charles Francis Adams' Letter on a Presidential Nomination.

NEW YORK, Sept 16. In response to a newspaper paragraph, suggesting his name in connection with the Presidential nomination next year, Charles Francis Adams writes the following letter from Quincy, Mass.

My Dear Sir—I cannot but be deeply moved by the voluntary expressions of esteem which I occasionally find in the newspapers in reference to myself. I trust they may not have the effect of turning my head or making me think of myself better than I ought to think. With regard to the suggestion made in the article to which you call my attention I am sure it would be very agreeable to me to undertake the work, but I have, I fear, already on my hands quite as much as I dare hope to accomplish during my term of life approaching so near to three-score and ten prescribed as the limit of usefulness. As I do I shall have to make a great effort and run a great risk of leaving matters in confusion. It is for this reason that I have been perhaps too indifferent to the wishes of many who have desired to have me called again into public life. I see nothing there just now which promises happy results within a short time, meanwhile I am steadily releasing myself from the responsibilities, if not of writing history, at least of putting out of reach of accident the valuable materials for writing it, which have been placed in my hands, or which I have myself gathered in my own career. I doubt whether I could be made more useful to the world in any other way. Pray excuse me for my egotism, and believe me,

Truly yours,

CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS.

WASHINGTON.

Commissioner Smith before the Red Cloud Commission.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. Commissioner of Indian Affairs Smith was again before the Red Cloud Commission to-day and was interrogated concerning the various matters connected with the Indian Department, including the subject of agents. These he said, are designated by the various religious sects to the Secretary of the Interior and are nominated to the Senate by the President for confirmation. The Board of Indian Commissioners have nothing to do with their appointment, but if they see anything wrong in the conduct of the agent they make it known to the proper authority and may recommend changes.

MISSISSIPPI.

Another Conference with the Attorney General.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. Senator Bruce of Mississippi, and one of his associates, called upon the Attorney General to-day and stated they had telegraphed to Gov. Ames that they were satisfied with what the Attorney General had done in regard to applications from the Governor for the interference of the General Government in affairs in their State.

Letter to Governor Ames.

The President has consented to the publication of the following letter:

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
Washington, Sept. 14, 1875.

To Governor Ames, Jackson, Miss.:

This hour I have despatched from the President. I can best convey you his idea by extracts from his despatch. The whole public are tired out with these annual autumnal outbreaks in the South, and the great majority are ready now to condemn any interference on the part of Government. I heartily wish that peace and good order may be restored without issuing the proclamation; but if it is not the proclamation must be issued, and if it is, I shall instruct the Commander of the forces to have no child's play. If there is a necessity formilitary interference there is just ice in such interference as to deter evil doers.

I would suggest the sending of a dispatch or letter by private messenger to Gov. Ames urging him to strengthen his own position by exhausting his own resources in restoring order before he receives government aid. He might accept the assistance offered by citizens of Jackson and elsewhere. Gov Ames and his advisers can be made perfectly secure, as many of the troops now in Mississippi as he deems necessary may be sent to Jackson. If he is betrayed by those who offer assistance he will be in a position to defeat their ends and punish them.

You see by this the mind of the President with which I and every member of the Cabinet, who has been consulted, are in full accord. You see the difficulties; you see the responsibilities which you assume. We cannot understand why you do not strengthen yourself in the way the President suggests; nor do we see why you do not call the Legislature and obtain from them whatever power and money and arms you need. The constitution is explicit that the Executive of the State can call upon the President for aid in suppressing domestic violence only when the Legislature cannot be convened, and the law expressly says in case of an insurrection in any state against the government thereof, it shall be lawful for the President on application of the Legislature of such state, or of the Executive, or when the Legislature cannot be convened, to call, etc. It is the plain meaning of the constitution and laws when taken together the Executive of the State may call upon the President for military aid to quell domestic violence, only in case of an insurrection in any state against the government thereof, when the Legislature cannot be called together. You make no suggestions, even that there is any insurrection against the state, or that the Legislature would not support you in any measure you might propose to preserve the public order. I suggest that you take all lawful means and all legal measures to preserve the peace by the forces in your own state and let the country see that the citizens of Mississippi, who are largely favorable to good order and who are largely Republican, have the courage and the manhood right for their rights and to defend the bloody ruffians who murder the innocent and inoffensive freedmen. Everything is in readiness. Be careful to bring yourself strictly within the constitution and laws, and if there is such resistance of your state authorities, as you cannot by all means at your command suppress, the President will solidly aid you in crushing these lawless traitors to human rights. Telegraph me on receipt of this and state explicitly what you need.

Very respectfully yours,

(Signed) EDWARDS PIERREPONT,
Attorney-General.

NEW YORK STATE.

The Democratic Convention.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 16. The Democratic State Convention met at Whiting's Hall. Every seat is occupied. There are not less than 2,500 in the hall and many were unable to get inside. Daniel McGore of St. Lawrence was elected temporary chairman. In his speech on taking the chair, an allusion to gold and silver as the paper currency elicited moderate applause. Gov. Tilden's name was also received with much applause. Among the credentials submitted were those of several contesting delegations from New York city and Albany. DeWitt C. Johnson appeared as delegate from Oswego. A committee was appointed on permanent organization. A committee was also appointed on credentials and resolutions. Ira Shaffer, a contestant from New York city, attempted to speak, but was ruled out at the instance of John Kelly until his case was decided. A recess was then taken until 4 o'clock.

The Evening Session

reported in favor of the admission of the tammany delegation but inviting all contestants to seats on the floor. Adopted.

The Committee on permanent organization reported in favor of Geo. Hinckin Sturges of Otsego for permanent President, with Vice-Presidents from each Congressional District, the New York city Democratic District for the present. Sturges on taking the chair made a speech. Adjourned till 9 A. M., to-morrow.

The Suspended Bank.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. A San Francisco special to the Herald states the Bank of California will probably open the 27th. Everything is moving smoothly towards resumption. There was no over-issue of stock.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The Boston Safe Robbery.

BOSTON, Sept. 16. The thieves who robbed the safe of Sargent & Co. of $17,000 worth of notes and other valuables yesterday, returned to-day through the mail all the property but $73 in cash.

Assets and Liabilities of Lee & Shepard.

An adjourned meeting of the creditors of Lee & Shepard was held this forenoon. The statement of the affairs of the firm is as follows: Gross amount of assets independent of stereotype, $198,433.67; liabilities, $667,266.59. The stereotype plates, the cost of which was about $250,000, Mr. Shepard thought it best for the creditors to decide upon the present value. After reading the statement it was moved that a committee of five be appointed to examine the accounts of Lee & Shepard and to ascertain the prime value of the stereotype plates. This motion was adopted and the committee appointed.

SPAIN.

The Papal Nuncio.

LONDON, Sept. 16. The Madrid correspondent of the Times summaries the circular of the Papal Nuncio to the Bishops as follows: The Nuncio claims the fulfillment of the concordate which forbids the exercise of any non-Catholic creed, requires the transfer of the superintendence over education to the clergy, and pledges the co-operation of the secular power in suppressing heretical teaching and literature. He says one of the causes of civil war is the way in which religious unity has been misunderstood by previous governments. For these reasons and in view of these consequences the Holy See believes itself strictly obliged to present these charitable exhortations to the Government. The Times' correspondent adds, no doubt the presentation of this audacious claim at a time when a liberal Cabinet has just been installed, implies a threat that if the Government persists it, the blessing of the Church will be definitely transferred to Don Carlos and peace retarded in every possible way.

PORTO RICO.

Trying to Start a Revolution.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. Puerto Plata dates of the 27th ult. state that the revolutionary movement under Gomez at Laraga a short time ago was promptly suppressed and Gomez fled to the woods. It is affirmed that ex-President Baez, who is residing in Porto Rico, is working hard to bring about a revolution against Gonzales. It is asserted that the authorities of Porto Rico are giving them a helping hand, as they are under the impression, created by Baez, that the Government of the Republic is assisting the Cubans, regarding hence, neutral the Spanish Government in Cuba. That, however, is false. The only privilege the Cubans have is to write freely, the press be ng free. Transactions in tobacco are stagnant, owing to the low prices in Europe.

The supply of Cattle in market this week has been the lightest of that for several weeks past. The quality of them been the best we have seen since the month of last week ago. Prices upon all grades remain unchanged from our last quotations. The trade has not been very active for Beef Cattle. Drovers complain that the markets of Boston have been very hard and dull for some days past. There were some very nice Beef Cattle brought in from Maine and their supply of work-ers.

Working Oxen—There has been a fair supply in market, most of them being brought from Maine. We quote sales at one pair girth 6 ft 8 in, $120. 1 pr, 1 ft, $1.50; 1 pr 7 ft 6 in girth, $200 lbs, $130; 1 pr, 1 ft, 1200 lbs, $145; 1 pr, 6 ft 8 in, five years old, 2000 lbs, $150; 1 pr, 6 ft 8 in, five weight, 2400 lbs, $170; 1 pr 6 ft 4 in, five weight, 2000 lbs, $150.

Milch Cows—Extra, $55 @ $60, ordinary $35 @ $50 a head. Store Cows $18 @ $40 a head. Most of the Cows offered in market for sale are of a common grade.

Fancy Calves—Yearlings $11 @ $17; two year olds $18 @ $30; three year olds $25 @ $45. Prices of veal Calves depend much upon their quality for Beef.

Sheep and Lambs—From the West there was a good supply, all owned by butchers, and costing somewhat lower than of late. From the East the supply was larger than that of the previous week, and prices obtained were fully 1c @ 2c lower than those of last week.

Swine—Store Pigs wholesale, 10c @ 9c, retail, 10 @ 10c @ 8; Fat Hogs, 9@9c in market; prices 8 @ 8½c @ 9.

THE CHIMNEY-NEST

BY MARY B. DODGE.

Children, dull are swallow flocks
Twittering and twittering, flit, days and days together,
With twittering bird-notes filled the place

Where are you flying now swallow mother?
Where are you wheeling the space blue?
How many little ones follow, follow
Whose wings to strength in the chimney grew?

Deep and narrow and dark and lonely
The snug grove that you nested in—
Only a little chink of sky
Say were there many to make the day?

There is certain that somewhere or other
Up in the ch many a loosely hung
A spot shaped just where a parent mother
Brooded a brood of tender young.

That here as in many deserted places
Remaining will life for hours and hours
We may see the twin a thousand graces
Twined the room since and more ours.

Ah why do we that one eye half blindly
And let we our hearts to show wee things near Till He who protected them kindly—kindly
Gathers them back that we see and hear

And know by loss of the same grown dearer
Nought is so small, of all the ways and
Our holding Redeemer with tender
Has added a jew to our vanished days?

So little does it seem allow feather
Remained in the care by the Masters hand
Fully including for your message whether
Or not the whole I may understand

AN APPRENTICE'S STORY

Having completed my labors at school, I secured Colonel Wilkes for my next step of labor. I had been at work in Columbus about two weeks when a difficulty occurred which but for the faithfulness of a negro would have ended in my death at the hands of a desperate man. During my stay in Columbus I had made a friend of a negro slave belonging to Colonel Wilkes. He master was a worthy man, and had a family, who had brought up in all of his name into the high of my relation his slaves, and this negro was a certain fellow, and really attached to me. Being from this negro's care I was several volumes of his travels by whose books would frequently beat the back of his hand using iron and bitch. He was a very fine negro. In one of my excursions in the plantation I was accompanied by the slave one day.

During our rambles I came upon the house of his wife and suffering and expressed to him that I would go in for dinner. I felt that I could with impunity and impart a little comfort to the poor woman. So I left the negro to go with absorbing care while I explained the matter to the poor woman. I felt that I would
